

Blaine Bishop, Tennessee Titans (Retired)

COLLEGE CAREER INFORMATION

- After graduating from Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, Indiana; Bishop received a full athletic scholarship to Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana.

NFL CAREER INFORMATION

- Drafted by the Houston Oilers in the 1993 NFL Draft.
- Bishop had a successful 10 year career while playing in the NFL. He was recognized as one of the NFL's premier hardest hitting safeties during his tenure with the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans.
- Bishop was selected to play in four Pro Bowls during his career.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Bishop was named the Boys and Girls Club Alumni of the Year, inducted into Ball State University's Athletic Hall of Fame, is a recipient of the G.O.L.D. Award and sits on the Big Brothers Big Sisters Middle Tennessee Chapter Board.
- Bishop serves as an analyst for the Titans pre and post game shows. In addition, he currently hosts a sports radio talk show on Nashville's 104.5 The Zone.

