FOOTBALL CAREER INFORMATION

- In his final season at Oklahoma, Lofton earned first-team All-American honors from The NFL Draft Report, Football Writers Association of America, Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News adding second-team accolades from the Associated Press
- Drafted in 2008 by the Atlanta Falcons in the second round (37th overall).
- Lofton, as a rookie, started right away and is a big part why the Atlanta Falcons clinched their first playoff berth since 2004.
- Lofton led all Falcons rookies and ranked fourth on the team with 94 tackles (67 solo).

PERSONAL INFORMATION:

- Born and raised in Kingfisher, Oklahoma (population under 5,000)
- Keith Brooking, the former 11-year starting linebacker for the Falcons believes that Lofton will be the next "great" Falcons middle linebacker. "He's got a good head on his shoulders and he's going to be a true star in this league," Brooking said. "Defensively the sky is the limit for him."
